

Anesthesiologist Opportunity in Silicon Valley

G2 Anesthesia

Location: Los Gatos, CA

G2 ANESTHESIA
SEMPER VIGILANS

The Partnership

The most highly regarded independent, physician owned partnership of board-certified anesthesiologists in the Silicon Valley. There are no employed physicians or lower tier associates. Work and compensation are allocated similarly to new and established partners.

As an independent, physician-owned partnership, G2 provides stable, highly satisfying work opportunities without ties to a large, expensive national management enterprise.

We Offer

- Local group independence that affords a nimbleness to pivot as market forces evolve
- Forward thinking practice management by physicians with diverse, proven business relevant experience
- Clear and transparent governance and operations with an emphasis on fairness
- Superior compensation and benefits within a personal corporate structure that maximizes the partner's financial flexibility.
- Partners who consistently rank their colleagues as a major differentiator among Bay Area practices
- Many opportunities for leadership development and skillset diversification

Los Gatos, CA

Consistently known as one of the sunniest, safest, and overall best places to live in the country, San Jose and the surrounding area has rapidly gained the name recognition afforded to its West Coast neighbors. Situated at the south end of the San Francisco Bay, San Jose is one of California's oldest cities.

Los Gatos, a suburb of San Jose, is nestled at the base of the forested green slopes of the Santa Cruz mountain range. Hiking and biking trails abound the area with tranquil, Vasona Lake as a link to those trails. 45 minutes south of San Francisco and 30 minutes east of Santa Cruz, Los Gatos has a year-round average temperature of 70° with more than 300 annual days of sunshine.

The greater San Jose area is known for its explosive growth; art galleries, museums, sports teams, and diverse dining options join the churches, vineyards, and spectacular scenery that have made their home here for decades. Neighboring towns of Campbell, Willow Glen and Almaden also provide a diverse offering of entertainment, dining and attractive suburbs to call home.

Many of the most prominent technology companies, including Google, Apple, Facebook, Hewlett Packard, Intel, Yahoo, and Netflix, call this area home. Location, innovation, diverse community and attractions are just some of the things that make the area a great community and a great place to live, work, and play!

Why live here

- Great place to raise a family with access to top tier public and private schools
- Diverse entertainment and attractions
- An outstanding career-long practice
